

bioSite Project: Ideas, Sketches, and Inspiration

Subject: Ahmed AlSalihi

Prepared for bio Site Assignment

CSD 340

02/05/2026

Subject Overview

Ahmed Al Salihi is a lifelong learner. He is an educator and former journalist. His career has been shaped by persistence, flexibility, and a passion for learning. His career trajectory includes journalism, leadership, immigration, and a career change into education later in life.

Interview with Ahmed AlSalihi

Q: Tell me about yourself.

A: I was raised to learn, be responsible and work hard.

Q: When did you know you loved to travel?

A: Getting to experience life through others eyes.

Q: How did you become interested in photography?

A: I wanted to remember the things I saw while traveling.

Q: Why did you go back to school?

A: Because why should learning end.

Q: What obstacles did you face going back to school at 56?

A: Time management and technology.

Q: What did earning your masters make you feel?

A: accomplished and powerful

Q: What drives you today?

A: curiosity

Q: How have family played a role in your success?

A: They supported me through it all.

Q: Any advice to others who want to learn something new?

A: You are never too old to learn.

Q: What would you tell the younger generation?

A: Stay focused and never stop learning.

Formal Biography (About Page Content)

Ahmed AlSalihi started his career as a journalist working with several international organizations like the U.S Army. After serving as a journalist with the U.S Army he continued his career with Kyodo Japanese News Agency and worked his way up to become the head manager of their branch in Iraq. Once he moved to the US, he decided to pursue a career in education. While teaching at elementary level with Kent School District, he received his master's degree at the age of 56. He continues to inspire kids to be disciplined, empathetic, and lifelong learners. In his free time, he loves traveling and photography.

Images and Descriptions

Graduation Portrait – Represents academic achievement and lifelong learning.

Travel in Hawaii – Reflects love of travel and photography.

Travel Reflection – Appreciation for nature and exploration.

Family Graduation – Commitment to education and family values.

Professional Journalism Career – Leadership at Kyodo News.

Journalism in Action – Career experience and responsibility.

Portrait Image – Used on About page.

Front-End Style Guide

Primary Color: Deep Purple (#5A2D82)

Secondary Color: Charcoal Gray (#2E2E2E)

Accent Color: Soft Gold (#C9A44C)

Heading Font: Playfair Display

Body Font: Open Sans

Wireframe Descriptions

Landing Page: Hero image, introduction, achievement highlights.

About Page: Portrait image and formal bio.

Hobbies Page: Travel and photography image gallery.